DATED : NOVEMBER 23, 2006.

P.C.:

1. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners, the learned A.G.P. for the State and the learned counsel for the respondent-Corporation.

2. Mr.Surana, the learned counsel for the petitioners states that respondent No.7 has already been allotted the land with regard to which the petitioners had made an application for allotment to the State Government. Mr.Surana, the learned counsel for the petitioners further states that since the land has already been allotted to respondent No.7, the petitioners have already made representation to the State Government seeking redressal. In view thereof, the learned counsel for the petitioners is not-pressing the above Petition. He only seeks relief that the representation of the petitioners should be decided by the State Government as expeditiously as possible.
